The Stylish Fluorescent Action

MISSION REPORT

CHARACTER & STORY INTRODUCTION

WITH THE TOWN DIVIDED BETWEEN THE WEST AND THE EAST, THE CONFLICTS WILL CONTINUE!!

A town with repeated disputes between the gang of boys divided into the West's Fellows and the East's Ordine. Powerful pair Soga and Mukai act as the West side's "Emergency Reinforcement Unit" and follow boss Kishita's orders which included gaining control of the East side's territory. The pair completed Kishita's usual request and encountered a large amount of money that came from the East side getting caught up in a huge battle. Welcome to the garbage dump! We're raising the curtain on this Stylish Action Comic!!

[Mukai]
A guy that works together with Soga. He's called "Sou-chan" by Soga, but he doesn't like it at all. He's the impulsive type and shows his emotions easily. He's Kishita's mahjong partner and likes to play. He losing rarely ever nothing for him.

[Soga]
He follows violently in Mukai's places as the Fellows "Emergency Reinforcement Unit" alongside Mukai. He's usually very quiet, but he gets angry no one can lay a hand on him. He follows a policy of "non-relying on others" but he seems to rely on Kishita for something.

[Aya]
An acquaintance to Soga and Mukai. She only sees men as walking wallets. She has a lot of good gossip sources and always has a lot of interesting news to many things.

[Kishita]
The leader of the West's powerful "Fellows". He has an atmosphere like he can flow through anything and everything. There's still a lot to discover about his identity.

THE STORY SO FAR

The next day a dispute with Ordine concerning money unfolded. Not long after that, Mukai learned from a classmate that he's being targeted by an Ordine student who goes to the same school. The armed group leader Hiramura Yuuto was confused about the whole thing. Meanwhile, gossip about the incident involving the Slasher who was only targeting the "villains of society" was the talk of the town. During all of that, when Fellows leader Kishita, who was playing mahjong at the Fellows' headquarters, learned of a member being attacked by the Slasher, he immediately gathered the whole gang and the "hunt for the slasher" commenced. Mukai, who considers himself an outsider, gets involved in the incident due to his usual loss of mahjong.

T/N: The verb used in "He struck again" can mean various things, including "to kill", but Mutou hears it as "did it again" and assumes the guy is talking about helping someone out. Obviously, the guy means he was attacked, though.

EVEN THOUGH WE CORNERED THOSE GUYS, WE WERE UNPREPARED FOR THE OPPORTUNITY THAT WOULD ARISE
IF WE WERE SEPARATED...
CRACK
This was all those guys after all. What are you gonna do after this?
